

JEFFREY MACKEY

DIGITAL MEDIA PRODUCER

SUMMARY

Digital media producer with extensive experience delivering end-to-end video for broadcast and brand clients, including internationally distributed programming. Skilled across the full production lifecycle - from concept development and scripting through field production, editing, and final delivery. Trusted by major brands and organizations to capture authentic, human-first stories on location, build rapport quickly, work respectfully within communities, and produce polished content with strong narrative clarity. Brings expert technical execution (camera, audio, post) and calm, professional set leadership - resourceful, adaptable, and reliable under tight deadlines.

TESTIMONIALS

"Smart and resourceful producer. One of the best we ever had."

-Mark Miller (President Cineflix Studios Vancouver, Co-Founder of Great Pacific Media)

"Jeff has single-handedly transformed Teach For Canada's teacher recruitment and organizational branding through his high-quality videos. Even more importantly, he is a pleasure to have as a collaborator. He has our organization's strongest endorsement."

-Kyle Hill (Co-Founder of Teach For Canada)
